on
Anti-Ragging Pledge Taking Ceremony
August 20, 2026, at 09:30 AM in LT1 003

Integral Business School, Integral University conducted an Anti-Ragging Pledge Taking Ceremony on August 20, 2026, at 09:30 AM in LT1 003 to raise awareness and promote a ragging-free campus environment. This event aimed to emphasize the influence of anti-ragging awareness on final-year students. As part of this event, the faculty members and students assembled at the Lecture Theatre Hall at 09.20 a.m. The students and the faculty members took the Anti Ragging Pledge Pledge.

The Anti-Ragging Awareness initiative was structured to provide valuable insights and foster a safer campus environment by focusing on the following key aspects:

1. Raising awareness about the negative impact of ragging on students' mental and emotional health.
2. Informing students about institutional policies, legal consequences, and available support systems related to ragging.
3. Encouraging students to actively oppose ragging and support their fellow peers.
4. Promoting a culture of respect and safety within the campus community.

Participants benefitted by gaining a clear understanding of anti-ragging policies, legal provisions, and support mechanisms. They also developed a sense of responsibility to stand against ragging and promote a safe campus culture. The event contributed to creating an inclusive, respectful, and secure environment for all students.

The organizer of Pledge Taking Ceremony was Prof. Asma Farooque, Dean & Head, Integral Business School. Dr. Gaurav Bisaria, Dr. Rizwana Atiq, Dr. Uzmi Anjum and Dr. Yasir Arafat Elahi were the members. The student coordinators were Deepanshi Kohli, Faiza & Ataur Rahman of BBA 3rd Year/5th Semester Group A. About 150 students and all faculty members actively participated and made the most of this enriching experience.
